Thursday May 11

Ignatian Spirituality for the 21st Century. Ignatius of Loyola was a Catholic priest who lived 500 years ago – what has he got to offer to men and women of today? Professor Liebert will offer a fresh perspective on the founder of the Society of Jesus, giving us insights into the gifts of Ignatius' spirituality for the modern world.

Eldon Hogan Hall, Xavier College, Kew. 7.30 pm. Cost: $30

Saturday May 13

Choosing wisely: being Christian in the church and in the world. Our Western world is a culture of freedom and choice. Our churches and our governments put before us choices that are sometimes in conflict. How can we make our way through the confusing cacophony of voices? How can we decide which voices to follow? Professor Liebert leads us through this maze with the guidance of the wisdom of Ignatius of Loyola.

Campion Centre of Ignatian Spirituality, 9 am – 3pm. Cost: $70
